

Employee Handbook

This handbook explains how we work together at the company and what you can expect from us during your first months. It is deliberately long enough that the paragraph wraps over several lines on the page, so that hard-wrapped text must be rejoined.

Leave policy

Every employee is entitled to twenty-five days of paid leave per year, accrued monthly and available from the first day of work.

- Request leave at least two weeks ahead
- Sick leave needs no approval
- Unused days expire after one year
